

Our History

Joy Soup Kitchen has been serving meals in Greenville, NC for over 20 years.

Initially located at York AME Zion Church on Tyson St in west Greenville, we moved to the JOY Community Building on Albemarle Avenue in 1995.

JOY, Inc. is a 501 (c)(3) nonprofit corporation devoted to promoting the general welfare and economic development of low income persons and groups in Pitt County, North Carolina.

The 1990 census of Pitt County indicated that 22% of the population had incomes below the poverty level. More than 40% of unrelated individuals and female headed households with young children had incomes below the poverty level.

JOY, Inc. exists as a response to the real, previously unmet needs of low-income people.

Volunteer or Support:

Please consider having your Church or other volunteer group to assist serving meals or providing food products for us.

We have several churches who provide support every week. If your church cannot provide a team, you are welcome to find a day that works for you and just schedule yourself to help.

Consider contributing in honor of family or friends, or in memory of those who are no longer with us. Contributions are typically needed to support the General Operating Budget, but also may be designated for Capital Repairs & Improvements.
